

I urge you vote to enforce individual ownership of individual broadcast stations and newspapers in individual cities. If I were not beholden to business interests, I would vote to prohibit ownership of more than one broadcast property or newspaper per corporate entity or natural person per city. That is the way I urge you to vote: against the wishes of Rupert Murdoch.